LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO FEB. 26

EASTERN STATES

British Notice on the Alabama Question

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—A Washington dispatch says the note on the Alabama question addressed to Minister Schenck is exceedingly amicable in tone and profuse in the expression of a desire on the part of the British to preserve the treaty and establish friendly relations between the Governments. The burden of the communication is the views expressed in the speech from the throne. The reply will show that there has been (no) surprise in the matter of the American case, and that the claims for consequential damages had been presented for discussion before the Joint High Commissioners. This being so, there can be no withdrawal of the American case.

Illness of Richard Yates—Chicago News

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Ex Senator and Ex Governor Yates is lying dangerously ill with hemorrhage of the bowels at his residence at Jacksonville, Illinois.

The Wachtel Opera Troupe have brought their engagement in the city to an abrupt end ostensibly on account of the alleged sickness of Wachtel, but it is rumored and generally believed that the real cause is a disagreement between the great tenor and his manager with regard to financial matters. It is announced this morning that the condition of Wachtel's throat will prevent his singing for a month.

About 100 passengers from San Francisco via Union Pacific Railroad arrived here at 11 o'clock last night. A portion of the passengers left San Francisco on the 22d of January. They are very severe in denunciation of officers and employees of the Union Pacific Railroad, charging them with neglect of their duties, with inefficiency and with brutality in their treatment of passengers. Gov. Pott, of Montana, is among the passengers. San Francisco mails to February 7th were received to-day.

Immense mass meetings were held, in the west and south divisions of the city last evening, to ratify the passage of the recently enacted temperance law. Addresses were delivered by leading clergymen, lawyers and others in support of the law and protesting against its repeal, which is being strongly urged upon the Legislature by the liquor interests.

New York News

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The Pacific railroad snow embargo has again made itself felt in New York. The Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s pier at Canal street is filled with loaded and unloaded cars, and carmen stand by them day and night, awaiting their turn to deposit their goods on an extra steamer which is to sail next Thursday. At night the street is illuminated by bon fires. The merchants have authorized their carmen to pay high premiums for places ahead in the line, but not a carman will budge from his place. One hundred were awaiting last night and the number has not been lessened.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says it is stated that Collector Arthur has tendered his resignation and that the place has been offered to Treasurer Spinner, who declined.

It was shown in the quarantine investigation yesterday that enormous charges have been made for assistance which ship agents were compelled to receive by agents of the quarantine department, and that bribery of various kinds always facilitates inspection of vessels. It was also testified that quarantine property was undersold.

It appears that the examination of accounts of bureau bonds in the Department of Public Works shows that enormous charges have been made for tools and road implements.

Mail advices from Brazil state that a band of Gouchs assassins under the leadership of Achilan Ketter, in one day killed some fifty foreigners near the river Ibicuhy. The foreigners aided by the authorities turned upon the murderers, killed ten and took eighteen prisoners. The leader of the villains was taken from jail and lynched, and it was expected the rest of the prisoners would be shot by the town's people.

Men Lost in Minnesota

ST. PAUL, Feb. 26.—Deputy Marshal McCausland left Fargo, on Red River, on the 18th inst. with four prisoners to take them to Fort Pembina. When near Grand Forks, about 100 miles north of Fargo, two of the prisoners escaped. McCausland gave chase since when nothing has been seen or heard of the three. No doubt they perished in the storm of the 23d or that McCausland was foully dealt with by the two desperadoes. A party is search starts from Fargo today.

Valuable Deaths.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A private telegram from Baltimore states that Father Cahky, Vicar General of that Diocese, is dying.

Abram Boal for 18 years past agent of the New York Prison Association died yesterday.

WASHINGTON CITY

Meddling Foreign Ministers

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—The Tribune's Washington special says the State Department has two cases on hand in which two prominent American Ministers are charged in general terms by powers to which they are accredited with offenses of His character as the committed by Catacazy. The Spanish authorities have caused representations to be made that Minister Sickles has taken such part in the discussion of Spanish politics as to give great offense at Madrid. Whether his views have been of such pronounced character between various factions, and his criticisms of Spanish officials such as to seem to the authorities, at Madrid to be inexcusable interference, they have caused the grounds of objection to the course of Gen. Sickles to be brought to the attention of Secretary Fish in a manner wholly friendly, and have at the same time caused it to be understood that the return of Sickles to Madrid is not desired.

The second case is that of our Minister to Italy, Geo. P. Marsh. It seems that upon the announcement, in 1870, that the Italian government intended to occupy the Papal States, on September 12th of that year he wrote Secretary Fish as follows: The Italian government has long hesitated upon the adoption of a decided policy and in fact, has been so constantly in the habit of blindly following the dictation of the Emperor of France in the conduct of its foreign relations without attempting to work out a policy for itself that since the downfall of the Empire has silenced its orators, the ministry has been completely broken and quite unable to arrive at a conclusion upon any subject. Until forced by fear of popular violence to decide upon military occupation of the Papal Territory, its future course in this matter unless controlled by exterior forces, will be characterized by vacillation, hesitation and duplicity as has always been since 1864. There is no reason to hope that any measure originated by this or any probable future Cabinet will tend to settle the question upon any terms which ought to be acceptable to the Italian people. This was published in the correspondence of the State Department but was only lately called to the attention of the Italian authorities, and fell at once to an exhibition of considerable coolness toward Mr. Marsh. The matter has been called informally to the attention of the State Department. In partial explanation of the matter it is to be said that this particular letter of Marsh's was not intended for publication but was placed by the clerk among those selected for the printers. No formal request is made to recall Marsh but the Italian authorities have intimated that it cannot be expected that they will entertain very friendly feelings for a Minister who has executed their government of continual duplicity.

Changes in New York Custom House.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—A Times special says the Secretary of the Treasury will issue to-morrow or next day regulations for general order business in New York which will virtually abolish the Leet and Stebbins system. This is to be followed this week by the removal of Collector Arthur in order that the office may be given to the new order of things.

The Alabama Dispute

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says our Government has author ized an offer to be made to Gladstone Ministry to settle the Alabama claims for fifty millions of dollars.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London Dispatches

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Consul of the United States before the Geneva arbitration are preparing their reply to the case submitted by Great Britain. They think England will finally consent to the arbitration but the Gladstone ministry will be out of power before she reaches that determination again.

There is understood to be opposed to the continued residence of Count Da Chambord at Antwerp. There were some riotous demonstrations at Antwerp last night. All large assemblages are dispersed by gens d armes.

Mail advices state that a panic took place at the Berlin Stock Exchange on the day the news was received from London of the construction placed by Great Britain on the Treaty of Washington. American stocks could not be sold at all.

Gen Sherman in Italy

FLORENCE, Feb. 25.—Gen Sherman, Admiral Alden, Lt. Grant, and a party of residents and visitors went to Pompeii yesterday and had a picnic among the ruins. Special excavations made gave the visitors an opportunity of witnessing the process of making discoveries. The party returned to Naples at a late hour much pleased with the excursion.

Five distinct shocks of earthquake were felt at Leghorn on Saturday night, and caused much alarm. No damage was done.

Revolt in India Quelled

BOMBAY, Feb. 24.—A dispatch from General Roughler, commanding the expedition against the Looshais, dated the 20th inst. announces that the tribes surrendered unconditionally and the country has been subdued.

MEXICO

The Insurrection

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12th, report the capture of Mazatlan by the Government troops, but this evidently is a mistake. The report of the route of the forces under Pasquira from Sonora, by the rebels in Sinaloa, is only partially confirmed. He gained one engagement, but being deserted in the fight next day by the late revolted troops from Guaymas, he was compelled to retreat eight days to Mocorita, where he awaited reinforcements.

MATAMORAS, Feb. 25.—The reported death of General Teofilo Diaz, from dysentery, on the 12th inst., is confirmed. The followers of Diaz have proclaimed for De Tamada or Juzman for President. 4 000 Government troops are inside of San Luis Potosi, and 3,500 men and 24 pieces artillery outside. 11 000 revolutionists are confronting the Government forces. Fighting has occurred without any decisive results both parties maintaining their ground.

ARIZONA

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 24.—The last news via Arizona from Mexico gives reports of Pasquiera's defeat in Sinaloa, and also that his forces met a terrible defeat in Sonora by the revolutionists. Many are fleeing to Arizona to escape the terrors of the revolution.

Paymaster Stanton left Apache January 20th for Verdi and Prescott via Little Cottonwood. On the second day snow was encountered and kept increasing till on the 5th a return march was commenced under much difficulty. The party reached Tucson without loss of life.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Firms received freight on the 21st inst. which had been blockaded some of it for two months on the Union Pacific Railroad. A flood of freight is expected in a day or two.

Eb. L. Wright aged sixteen, a student in Heald's Pacific Business College has been missing since January 28th. It is feared he has been murdered. His parents live in Contra Costa county.

It commenced raining heavily at 2 P M. barometer very low, indicating a heavy storm.

The English Colonial mail and passengers left New York on Wednesday, and every effort will be made to get them here by Wednesday morning next, so as to obviate the necessity of postponing the sailing of the steamer Montana, advertised for that day.

It is feared that the German bark Charlotte, which cleared for Hongkong August 3d with a cargo of flour, is lost. Nothing has been heard from her since she touched at Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—A woman who by long haunting the courts had become one of the recognized characters of San Francisco under the soubriquet of "Miss Flite," after Dickens' celebrated character in Bleak House, whose conduct she imitated, was to day sent to the Insane Asylum. She imagines that the police have stolen her noise, and the Judges in collusion, have helped to spirit her away.

The bar of San Francisco have very generally united in a petition to the Governor to appoint ex Judge John Curry to the place on the Supreme bench made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Sprague.

The Twelfth District court adjourned until to-morrow in order to have a diagram prepared of the ground near the "Six Mile House" where August Kamp was murdered, as is charged by "The Chicken."

The report that Goodwin & Co., wholesale furniture dealers, had resumed was premature. The creditors had a meeting to day and the firm showing a surplus of $225,000 over liabilities, arrangements for resumption are being made.

The weather is clear and fine with fresh from the west.

A private dispatch from Omaha this morning says an English Colonial mail reached there at 1 o'clock this morning. It is being hurried through to San Francisco with all possible dispatch.

It is probable that the Montana will not be able to sail for Honolulu before Thursday.

The brig Leopa with Cocos Islanders will probably get to sea this evening. She did not get away Friday as reported, being detained at the last moment by a lawsuit.

The Twelfth District Court in which "The Chicken" is being tried for murder, has adjourned until to-morrow.

The weather is clearing up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—Arrived—Schooner Flying Eagle Newcastle, Australia, coal to Williams, Blanchard & Co.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 23.—The grand jury returned the following indictments to day: John Anderson, Henry Haynes and R. H. Johnson for the robbery of Charles Pacheco.

The Riot Murder Cases at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 26.—In the District Court to-day the Court ordered a special venire for one hundred jurors, to be summoned from this city, those who can speak English for the joint trial of several defendants in the Chinese riot murder cases which will commence to day.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

Dispatch from Eugene

EUGENE CITY, Feb. 26.—An accident occurred this afternoon about five miles south of here by which one Chinaman was killed and two others badly hurt. They were at work on a grade when the bank caved in on them. Men were immediately dispatched on a hand car for medical aid which was promptly rendered by Dr. Patterson and everything possible was done to make the wounded comfortable.

The jail of Clark county has to accommodate the prisoners of Cowlitz, Lewis, Pacific, Skamania and Wahkiakum counties, and it is such a poor concern that prisoners take a walk whenever they grow tired of the accomodations.

The Historical Society at Astoria

ASTORIA, Feb. 23, 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: Not having the time at my disposal required to copy the items contained in the following communication for the several papers on this coast it is requested that all friendly to our object will give it a place in their papers, and thereby afford all in this country an opportunity to enroll their own names, and such of their friends as are now deceased upon our record—thus placing the living in correspondence with this Society, which now has upon its roll of members one hundred names, besides its corresponding and honorary membership—52 names.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

At the regular monthly meetings of the Executive Board names of corresponding and honorary members are presented, if any one has any knowledge of such persons to justify the action of the Board in their election. Their names are not enrolled as members till the receipt of their answer.

THE PRESS

It will be seen by the above that our Society has but commenced its work. The press appears, to a majority of its present members, to be an important element in its future progress. Important measures have been taken to procure one, to be under the control of the Board. For while the Society has and may continue to collect the most interesting statistical and historical facts relative to the settlement and progress of the country, and of its members, it would not expect more than a passing notice—a friendly recommendation for its efforts from journals devoted to other objects. The experience of all parties, professions and sects has proved that fact beyond a question.

THE DECLINE OF THE SOCIETY

We do not propose that this Society shall die with the early pioneers of the country, nor with the present generation. But that its record in everything that relates to this coast shall be on file in its archives, and ready, with the stamp of absolute certainty as to the facts stated. Wisconsin has a noble Historical Society; California a noble Mercantile Library. The former a few years ago commenced to gather the early history of its Territorial settlement and of its settlers. It had in 1870 20,324 bound volumes in its library and 21,864 papers and documents, the best library in the West. The latter in 1870 reported 82,504 volumes and 289 annual publications. They are just commencing to collect the early history of the State.

OUR EFFORT

Is not sectional, political nor local. No tax is levied upon its members, no charges are made on entering names in our record. Persons desiring to become voting members are expected to pay to the Treasurer of the Society $3, and thereafter $1 50 per annum if they claim the right to vote. Persons irrespective of time of arriving in the country contributing to its funds or library or reading room the sum of $50 becomes a voting member, and on paying to the printing press fund $50, which is a share and is transferable, is entitled to one copy continuously of its publications.

Donations of books, pamphlets, papers and manuscripts are already being received. Two hundred volumes of books are now ready to be arranged in our library, and about the same number of documents, pamphlets, papers and manuscripts.

Proceedings of our annual meeting will be furnished to all the presses as soon as they can be arranged and copied.

Respectfully etc., W. H. GRAY, Corresponding Sec'y.

Trade with the Sandwich Islands

Honolulu papers publish tables showing the amount of articles exported from the Hawaiian Islands during the year 1871. The showing is very satisfactory. Following is a summary:

The exports of sugar was 2,977 134 pounds more than in any former year. Paddy shows an increase of 331,999 pounds Rice, 264,943 pounds Wool, 237,010 pounds Tallow, 94 852 pounds, Pulu 58,917, and hides 6 289 pkgs. Coffee shows a decrease of 368,132—this decrease arises from the fact that the export of 1870 was larger than usual, from the sending forward of coffee that has been held from the preceding year awaiting a rise of prices. Coffee planting on the Islands, however, languishes, owing to the discouraging effects of the blight and the uncertainty of prices. The footing shows an increase of $253 619 60 in the value of exports of 1871 above that of the year before.

A member of the British House of Lords the other day in a discussion on the American claims, presented to the Government the following question: If A. and B, partners made C. for fraud, and defendant C. proves that B, one of the plaintiffs, acted with him in committing the fraud, whether such proof would not be a complete answer and bar all damages? Applying this to the question at issue with the United States, he argued that the North and South are now partners in the Alabama claims, and if this law in the case of persons is good it ought to hold good in regard to nations.

Flank Roads

DAYTON, Feb. 12, 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: I see that a company has been formed in your city to build a plank road through the Tualatin Plains nearly on a line with the rail road. My purpose in this communication is to say that it has often been remarked by parties traveling through this part of the Willamet Valley that a plank road from Portland to Dayton would be a paying institution. I have not the least doubt that such a road would pay the company who would build it ten dollars where the Washington county road would pay one. All the travel of Polk and Yamhill counties would take this road. Some dissatisfaction is expressed with the changes that have been made in the transportation of freight on the river this winter, and there is talk of putting teams on the road next summer and fall. Now if there were a plank road from Portland to Dayton it would cover the worst part of the road to Dallas, and would also be an inducement for the people of Benton county to travel this route. Not only would it be a great advantage to Yamhill, Polk and Benton, but it would be a great benefit to that part of Washington which the rail road does not reach, and which has no prospect of a railroad. If the people of Portland who are in the plank road business would look at this route I think they would see its advantages. OBSERVER.

[We would say to our correspondent that in these times of railroads no plank road can ever be a great thoroughfare for travel and transportation. By October next the railroad will be completed to the Yamhill river. The transportation of Yamhill county will then be performed by railroad, even if half a dozen plank roads from Portland were already built. Within two years the whole tier of west side counties will be traversed by a railroad, and it will not be possible for any plank road to compete with it in carrying their products. A local plank road, like the one proposed to Tualatin Plains, may be useful, but plank roads can never become main thoroughfares, especially alongside of railroads.—ED OREGONIAN.]

OREGON

Snow is disappearing in Baker county and the miners are resuming work.

Jacksonville will hold an election for municipal officers on the 5th of March.

The work of rebuilding Baker City Academy, that was destroyed by fire last fall, has been resumed.

Miss Ida Waters has retired from the Superintendency of the Academy at Dallas and her place is taken by Miss Clara Watt.

The Good Templars of Baker City had a festival a few evenings ago that brought in $156 25. Some rascally thief stole a great cake with gold rings in it, or the receipts would have been larger.

The Jacksonville Times of last week says: On Wednesday, during the trial of the case of Monroe vs. Waddle, two of the attorneys became involved in an affray. The parties were promptly separated by the officers of the Court. The Court ordered both participants under bonds of $1000 each to keep the peace, and on Thursday morning one paid a fine of $40 on one and $30 on the other.

THE TERRITORIES

Geo. W. Shaser, formerly of Olympia, has lost his entire band of cattle in Kittitas valley, east of the mountains.

Seattle is getting to be quite a hay market. The Portland steamer will call there on the 29th inst., after another load.

The Olympia Courier of February 22d says: The Chutes river was higher, on Monday last than it has been for twenty years. The damage done to the manufacturing interests of Tumwater was very slight. The mills did not cease operations for an hour.

The following vessels, loaded with railroad iron, are now on their way to Alaska Bay: Corea, left New York on December 16th, 1871, with seven hundred and seventy two tons; ship Annie M Small, from New York January 6th, 1872, with one thousand three hundred and fifty nine tons.

Another Testimonial of a CASE OF CHRONIC SORE EYES! Of Six Years' Standing.

PORTLAND, OREGON, Feb 23, 1872

TO THE PUBLIC:—I wish to add my testimonial to the number that Dr. ABORN has received while here. For about six years I suffered terribly with Granulated Sore Eyes, being nearly blind at times, and his wonderful success in me in this miserable condition. No treatment that I had ever received done me any good. I was advised to apply to Dr. Aborn alone six months ago but was deterred from doing so at the time as some said that he was as high in his charges that I thought I could not pay. I sent for one to apply. Some two months since I learned that he was not only certain to cure all such diseases of the eye, but that his charges were in many cases even less than those who charged me by the visit. So I applied to Dr. Aborn, and I am glad I did, as under all circumstances. The Doctor says that I was in a perfect condition to be at once prepared to cure me, and would make no

Dead Timber

Oregon is a young State and is busy laying the foundations of her material prosperity She therefore wants practical working representatives at Washington A Congressman is to be elected in June and a Senator in September Both will take their seats at the beginning of the next Congress However much we welcome the fact may be, it cannot be denied that our present Congressman has shown himself to be wanting in capacity to rightly represent the people and the material interests of Oregon Unfortunately too Senator Kelly is no benefit whatever to the State No one expects him to accomplish anything He belongs to the azoic age of Democracy and was elected to represent it He is not a man for public business but he could make buckrock Democratic speeches and hence he was elected If the State goes Democratic in June there is every reason to apprehend that the efficiency of our delegation in Congress will be still further reduced Just now is the time when the State needs thoroughly efficient men to represent it at Washington Are the people so well satisfied with the achievements of the Democratic representatives now there as to cause them to think that it would be the best policy for the State to send some more like them? Senator Kelly's record at Washington is a blank So is Congressman Slater's Perhaps it will be said that this is the language of partisanship Will any one say it is not exact truth? If anything can be found to fill the blank in the record of either of them we should be glad to learn what it is

Free Trade Policy

A few days ago we quoted several considerable extracts from a book on Political Economy written by a President of a Southern College just before the rebellion The book as the extracts showed was intended as an exposition of the free trade ideas which the South held so strongly, and which the Democratic party of the North adhering always to the most objectionable of Southern theories still proclaim and advocate The leading argument of the Southern author, it will be remembered was that the protective system, coupled with internal improvements would inevitably enhance the price of agricultural products while the free-trade, anti-internal improvement policy would as certainly reduce their value that the South wanted free trade because it would insure the American market to foreign manufacturers, secure the foreign market for Southern staples, repress home manufactures, force a larger number of men into agriculture, multiply the growth and diminish the price of provisions, furnish cheap food for slaves and enable planters to produce cheap cotton

It is remarkable how nearly this policy resembles that which Great Britain wants to force on the American people The Southern planters desired to produce cheap cotton so as to undersell the rest of the world Great Britain wants to produce cheap manufactures so as to control the world's markets Her aim is to undersell all others To do this she must depress the wages of labor and provide her laboring people at the lowest possible prices with the simple and coarse fare on which her low wages compel them to live She wants cheap fare for her slaves as the Southern planters did fo theirs, and tries to get it as they did by forcing British free-trade on the American people She is the foe of the workingmen of every country and impairs their wages by depressing those of the men upon whose toil her own power depends She protects the capital of England as we wish to protect the labor ingenuity and enterprise of the American people. Her aim is to be the workshop of the world, and to bind all other lands to the wise employments of unskilled agriculture Wanting cheap food for her working class, as the Southern planters did for theirs she desires America to adopt the policy of free trade so as to force a larger number of men into agriculture, and wanting the American market for her goods, she wants free trade to enable her to repress American manufactures

In 1825 Henry, afterwards Lord Brougham, in a Parliamentary speech, describing the effect of the peace of 1814 which bound continental Europe to the use of British manufactures, and produced an excessive importation of British goods in that direction, said

> The peace of America has produced somewhat of the same effect though I am very far from placing the vast exports which it occasioned upon the same footing with those to the European market the year before, both because ultimately the Americans will pay which the exhausted state of the continent renders very unlikely, and because it was well worth while to incur a ribbon upon the first exportation in order by the glut to style in the cradle those rising manufactures in the United States which the war has forced into existence contrary to the natural course of things

This will apply just as well since our recent civil war as it did after the last war with Great Britain During and since our great rebellion a high protective tariff, which was established primarily because a large revenue was indispensable, increased the manufactures of this country to an extent which was never before attained Hence the astonishing industrial progress and prosperity of the country in spite of the war But now if a free trade policy should be adopted the result would be that Great Britain would at once "stifle our manufacturing industry and in order to do this would be willing to incur loss on first exportations to this country — that is she would first crush our manufacturers by undersolling them and having then obtained absolute control of the market would make up her loss by an enhancement of prices.

These are some of the chief reasons why free-trade which the Democratic press of the country insists upon is not the policy for the United States Could anything make it plainer

Several of the Democratic newspapers of the State are urging Gov Grover to call an extra session of the Legislature The Jacksonville Times urges among other reasons that a deficiency in the appropriation bill for the current year should be attended to This is just as we supposed Tax payers of Oregon do you mark it? The Legislature at its last session appropriated more money by far for current expenses than ever was appropriated at a former session yet now we are coolly told that there is a deficiency which is so considerable as to constitute a reason why the Legislature should be called together in special session to supply it Well we suppose our economical administration must have all the money it wants

There is scarcely a doubt of their guilt, as the detectives have traced them almost every day since the murder up to the time of their arrest The details of the the terrible crime as published in the local papers at the time, show it to have been one of the most brutal cold blooded murders ever committed in New England. Plunder alone instigated the murderers to commit the crime The victims were T Billings and his wife who kept a house near Windsor Locks, and Julia Sayor, a woman in the house All three were butchered. The murderers however, only obtained about $60, though there was at least $500 in the house. The State of Connecticut had offered $1,500 and the town of Windsor Locks $500 reward for the apprehension of the murderers, who are now on their way East in charge of Windsor officers.

Washington County Politics.

HILLSBORO Feb 24 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR The wondering among the people as to who are to be the candidates for State offices at our State Convention to be held in Portland seems to be increasing in Washington county Usually there are as many candidates for county offices as there are voters but this year seems to be rather unhealthy for shoddy office seekers and the voters will have to hunt them up and bring them forward Hon o Washington county has run up to their chief head John I Boyles of Portland for one of the Electors and W D Hare for Prosecuting Attorney for the Fourth District This being about an equal share and fair division, Washington county calmly sents herself beneath her standard to await results desiring that all other counties shall have an equal right to go for the men of their choice, and trusting that whoever may be the men brought forward, or whatever may be the action of the Republican State Convention it will be for the best It is said that Washington county is divided up into factions and clans This is not true Whatever may be the feelings of a few persons whose imagination was wrought up to such a pitch as to believe that their personal interests have been jeopardized by such things as the moving of the county seat, and the building of a court house, which was taken up by the opposite party and fanned with a vigor which did them credit yet this dodge has been too long in operation to find any that will fall it but Democrats who still have a good head of wind Designing politicans have made use of this in other counties to try to infuse a little life into their helpless cause All that Washington county asks is that good men may be brought forward that have the will and the firmness to stand upon principle and to do what they can for the good of the masses whether in Congress or the Legislative Assembly, without regard to public excitements, cliques or rings

A correspondent of the Oregon City Enterprise alludes to a correspondent of the OREGONIAN as trying to "foist on the people of Oregon a cock and bull story that Dr. Whitman brought a large immigration into Oregon in 1833 " A typographical error is the sole cause of this testy criticism Instead of 1833 the date should have been 1843 Indeed this was obvious from the communication itself

THE FIRST LECTURE OF THE COURSE WILL BE delivered by REV D K NESBIT of Corvallis, on Tuesday Evening, March 5th, 1872,

at 7½ o'clock

SUBJECT—"MISTAKES"

MR NESBIT'S Lecture on "Shoddy" delivered in our City one of a year ago, was such a decided success that no one who heard him then will fail to hear him this time The subject will admit of the same general treatment as Shoddy and will enable him to present the many different kind of mistakes which make up the total of failure in human affairs, from which we gain the experience necessary to success

He will show the variety of mistakes, their use and danger—mistakes sad and ludicrous, mistakes in love marriage business kitchens, fish reforms, religion politics &c &c The Lecture will abound with illustrations drawn from the whole field of literature as well as real life and the pathetic and amusing will sparkle here and there together with recitations from various authors

In obedience to a generally expressed desire Mr Nesbit has consented to recite again the beautiful and inspiring poem of Barbara Frietchie in the previous rendition of which he showed himself a finished and dramatic elocutionist fe26dtd

REMOVED

The Office of THE DAILY AND WEEKLY OREGONIAN is removed to the N E cor of Stark and Front streets

JUST GROUND OF COMPLAINT.—We quite agree with and endorse the following from the Bulletin and venture the further remark that the number of short weight traders is much greater than is indicated in the paragraph which we quote 'A most pernicious habit has grown up among a certain portion of our retail dealers which, if it is not shortly stopped will result in their exposure and disgrace We refer to the habit some of them have fallen into of giving short weight A person purchasing a pound of tea will be furnished with from twelve to fourteen ounces the same with all other articles purchased by weight If you go into certain butcher shops to purchase meat you are deliberately swindled out of from two to four ounces on every pound If you buy a bushel of apples or potatoes you do not receive the amount you pay for and so on through the entire list of articles consumed by a family Of course there are only a few of these dishonest traders in every branch of trade, but the number is entirely to large and the sooner the honest ones hunt out and expose the rascally ones, the better it will be for them We fully expect that some of our dealers will wince under this and others will want to know who are the dealers meant All we have to say in this behalf is that honest dealers need not take it to themselves and the short weight sort are invited to read it twice

THE PIONEERS.—Gov Curry will entertain an audience at Philharmonic Hall to night with reminiscences of old times in Oregon—incidents in history, anecdotes of ment etc The Governor will tell how it is himself, having been among the first settlers in the wilds of Oregon At that day, and for many years, he was an active participator in the public affairs of what was first a mere province, then a provisionally governed colony, and finally a Territory, under the Government of the United States With few exceptions, there are no persons now living who have better funds of anecdotes of the pioneers or better tact in telling them. He was also one of the first, if not the first, newspaper editor in Oregon, and he was, by reason of his vocation, naturally thrown much among the leading men of those times Our ancient history is now becoming sufficiently dim by occasion of the gathering mists of time to be a matter of curious interest to all and this lecture will therefore present peculiar attractions to every one, whether he be of the "oldest inhabitant" persuasion or an immigrant We shall expect to see a full house

PASSENGERS FOR OREGON.—The following is the list of passengers to arrive per steamer Idaho, which sailed yesterday from San Francisco for this port Rev Bishop Morris, Rev T Dickey and family, Mrs Ridgeley and son, Mrs Wright and two children, John Grieo, B C De Witt, Mrs D Turner, L Bershaver, C W Cook, L Ensing, J L Hahn, Mrs M Leon, J B Crowell and wife, J Wilson, T M Richardson, A McCannahis and wife J McCannahie F E Palmer, F B Viers, Mrs J W Mason, J R Fletcher and wife, M Ward and wife, B Taylor O F Von Rhein, M Shaw, W J Fawcett, Mrs E Wood, D E Pease and wife, S S Mills, F C McCown, Rev George H Atkinson, A S Pratt, A Ferrill, W S Evans, C P Ferry, S Jacobs and family, Dr Thibeldt and family, C Geist, J N Campbell, A C Farnsworth, R Imbrie, R Pennington, W P Warrington, J Freeman, S W Lewis, J McGee and family, Miss H McGee, Miss S McGee, J McGee, Jr., J F Coss, Jr J F Coss and family, T Hannah, S Porter, Miss A Carr, Mrs A Bow, L B Porter and family.

UMPQUA RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—It will be remembered that last summer there were some improvements made to the channel of the Umpqua river, with the expectation that the work done would be sufficient to render the river navigable, at the usual river stages of water Either the work has not had enough work done in it, or the steamer running on the lower river are not of proper power to ascend the rapid current All attempts to get up the river have proved abortive We are informed that Major Robert will visit the Umpqua next week and will examine the places where trouble has been met with, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any further improvement can be made, likely to render the river navigable. There remains of the appropriation about $5,000 and if Major Robert shall find that the expenditure of that sum will accomplish the desired improvement, he will direct it to be done.

BUSINESS ALL ROUND.—The late ice blockades, storms and floods were rough not only on railroad, steamboat and stage people, but on nearly every business of the country The merchant's trade was cut off, building enterprises were brought to a halt and workmen were thrown out of employment travel almost ceased and hotels languished newspapers had no exchanges, local events were scarce in proportion to the general dearth, and telegraphic news stubbornly failed to come to time, the telegraph lines were knocked down faster than the repairing forces could put them up, the farmers couldn't plow nor sow, in short, nobody could do anything, and nothing was about as stupid as life in an Esquimaux camp Happily, now, the ice is gone, the floods are about over, the storms have partially abated, and everything begins to throb with new life

A NEW POLICE DUTY.—An English paper says Some people appear to have singular notions of the power and duties of the police In a notice of the earthquake in Wales we read that "a lady, in the absence of her husband, much alarmed by the noise, went in great excitement for a police officer" We are not told what the officer was expected to do Probably to take the earthquake up or at the very least, to report it to the Captain on duty for creating a disturbance. Had the matter transpired in Portland, the Chief would have made it good for at least two days board, and the boss Commissioner would have made a bill for one day's extra service for recording the proceedings

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.—The bark Wishfoot will probably go to Rainier to morrow where she will load with lumber for San Francisco

The bark Jane A Falkinburg was at Astoria on Saturday last, and probably went to sea on that day

The ship Chetah is receiving ballast and will be ready by to-morrow to commence taking cargo

It is expected the bark Windward will be ready to sail by the 20th of next month

The bark Metea will finish her cargo by the last of the week and will probably be towed down the river Friday

ANOTHER PLANK ROAD SCHEME.—We learn that Mr Hampton Kelly and other gentlemen of East Portland have undertaken the enterprise of building a plank road from that town along the base line road to the Sandy river The scheme is yet of course in its infancy but we are told that there are several men of means in it and that the start will be followed up with vigor We are glad to see these movements for better and easier communication with the surrounding outside country The more of them the better for each and for both city and country

REMOVAL OF OREGONIAN OFFICE.—The office of the OREGONIAN newspaper has been removed to the building foot of Stark street opposite the Cosmopolitan Hotel where all business connected with the publication of the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN will be hereafter transacted. The business and publication office is on the ground floor entrance next to Front street the editorial rooms, up stairs

POLICE MATTERS.—Yesterday morning, the following cases were disposed of by Judge Denny A J Simmons, drunk and disorderly fined $5 T Markham ditto fined $10 Chas Curry, ditto fined $10 M Hogan ditto, fined $5 J J Moody for putting a head on a Chinaman fined $15

UPPER COLUMBIA STEAMERS.—The O S N Co advertise this morning a new arrangement for their steamers for Wallula Passengers for points beyond Celilo to connect with the steamers at that point will leave here on Mondays and Fridays at 5 A M

RECTOR FOR TRINITY CHURCH.—Dr Nevins of Mobile Alabama and formerly of Pennsylvania has been called to the Rectorship of Trinity church He has telegraphed his acceptance and expects to be here on or before May 1st

FALLING.—The news from the Columbia is that that river is falling rapidly and will soon be down to ordinary spring stage The Wallamet has fallen a good many feet from the highest point reached

LOCAL BREVITIES

Dramatic and musical entertainment at Multnomah Hall, to night

A contemporary advertises to do cheap plain and fancy job printing

Since the water went down, the wharves are all found in a terrible state of mud and debris

The river is low enough again to admit of the occupation of basement store houses, along the city front

The sailor deserters petition for a writ of habeas corpus will be heard before Judge Deady at 10 A M to day

The Portland Social club has issued cards for their second reunion to take place next Monday evening at Armory Hall

The cover of the cistern at the intersection of Stark and Second streets has been ripped up A new cover is to be supplied it.

The temperance folks have mostly got home from the Salem Alliance and all is quiet again along the banks of the big Wallamet

On the 15th of March Father Glorney of Corvallis is to deliver a lecture in this city for the benefit of the Father Matthew Society

We have received another solution of the conundrum Why is the Metropolitan police like the town clock? Because neither is of much use after dark

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The great sensational and spectacular drama of 'Mazeppa' was produced last night to a full house It was mounted with splendid scenery and properties all new—and its many startling situations were produced with remarkable good effect Thursday lively, rapid and noisy, and it has withal a happy blending of the comic, the tragic and melodramatic There are several beautiful dances and numerous gems of song and opera The great attraction of the drama is its constant changes rapid succession of incident laughable or tragic, and the quick transformations and surprises Mr Waldron personating the insurrectionary leader Mazeppa Mrs Waldron Elvira, wife of the Viceroy's son (Fulford) Barry is the comic man of the play Guiseppe Ariello Miss Annie Ridley, the beautiful dumb girl, Fenella, the rest of the characters (minor) by the company, The audience—one of the most enthusiastic of the season—applauded most liberally, in one or two places breaking out into cheers The concluding scene which at the back, shows, Mt Vesuvius in a state of active eruption, was one of the most striking pictures ever shown on the Oro Fino Theater The play will have a run

John H Woodward admitted to the Bar

Electa Scott vs Jas D Scott suit for divorce decree granted

C Breman vs O S N Company judgment on verdict of jury for defendants

N Williams vs L M Starr, suit for wages, on trial

E A White vs P B Sinnett, demurrer to complaint sustained

PERSONAL

Mr T B Merry, at one time local reporter for the Bulletin, was lately admitted to the bar as an attorney at-law, solicitor, etc, at Yreka, Calif

We notice in the Idaho's passenger list the names of Rt. Rev Bishop Morris, John Green and C P Ferry, of this city; F O McCown of Oregon City, and other Oregonians.

A LIBERAL OFFER.—The Kalama Beacon says if we will send a subscription paper to that town, they will provide "in a jiffy" for lighting our town clock We think it best to give our city fathers a few months—their constitutional time—to think of the matter, and then if they goboluse they can't afford $263 40, we'll accept the offer of the Beacon. After all we are not sure that the "hamlet under the hill" ought to do something in this direction, as some of the Kalamaztights are frequently seen here at hours when none but an illuminated time piece would be of service to them

Aggravated Indigestion.

Persons who are predisposed to dyspepsia find the suffer as from this cause greatly aggravated by damp weather easterly winds and sudden changes from a mild to a chilling atmosphere In the spring therefore the pangs of indigestion are seriously augmented by the atmospheric variations peculiar to the season, and it is to a comment upon all who desire to pass through the ordeal of its cold mists and insalubrious gales with easy stomachs and unlacerated by the indescribable torments which accompany dyspepsia, to tone and strengthen the digestive organs with a healthful and effective vegetable invigorant, and no one at all familiar with the medical record of the age can question for one moment that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the Tonic best adapted to this purpose

The credentials of the Great Restorative are unequalled in number and character by those of any other advertised medicine in the world If ever there was a preparation to rank as a National Remedy this wonderful specific has a right to this title. For a period of twenty years it has literally been the Champion Tonic and Alterative on this side of the Atlantic in popularity it has never been approached by any of its would be competitors, and its annual sales are so far in advance of those of any other medicine of its class that comparisons would be ridiculous. One of two conclusions is inevitable Either Americans are deficient in common sense incapable of rational discrimination or Hostetter's Bitters is the best preventive remedy for indigestion fever and ague, bilious remittent fever constipation rheumatism nervous complaints and all maladies of an epidemic or endemic type The reader can judge for himself which of the two conclusions is most consistent with fact and reason

LITTLE HOMES!

WE HAVE OBTAINED MANY TESTIMONIALS which appear in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN for the purpose of answering once for all the many inquiries in relation to our LITTLE HOMES We desire to show to strangers, through men of known integrity in this community that they are all we claim for them—cheap at present prices, and the speculation in them lies in the future growth of Portland, in the building of Railroads, and Bridges over the Willamette—which is merely a question of time—and in the fact that in less than one mile distant City Blocks (200 feet square) are selling for from two to three thousand dollars and in less than two-and-a half miles [on a direct line] blocks are selling as high as $200 000 per block! Just think of it! $50 per acre for land and 2½ miles distant, $200 000 per acre! New York city is over twenty miles in length and six miles wide and many other cities in the United States are half that long and quite as wide and if Portland has in a metropolis she will require the land for business purposes Thirty years ago we could have purchased a section of land where the business portion of Chicago now stands for $10 per acre—$6400 for a five acre tract Thirty years ago we could have purchased the town site of Portland for a Cayuse pony—but we didn't! Ah! the pony! Twenty years ago a solitary individual with neither money nor friends found himself in Portland without a roof He purchased a basket on tick and filled it with oranges on the same terms and went to peddling Twenty long eventful years have since elapsed. Still that sturdy old pioneer has stuck to Portland and worked his way through thick and thin and now where do you think he is?—in the poor house and owes for the basket! But to our

LITERARY LONDON

LETTER FROM JOAQUIN MILLER

From the S F Chronicle Feb 8

Joaquin Miller the 'Poet of the Sierras' delivered his first lecture before a San Francisco audience last evening in the Mercantile Library Hall We have seldom seen a better audience in that building than the large assemblage that greeted Mr Miller in the heartiest manner on his appearance on the platform The lecturer dressed simply in black with his long yellow hair flowing on his shoulders and his hands in his pockets paced up and down the stage a few moments before addressing the audience Then leaning carelessly on the reading desk, and,

WITHOUT NOTES OR MANUSCRIPT

of any kind before him he began

Ladies and Gentlemen This is my first lecture, and, from my present state of mind, will probably be my last but I am glad to see you all in good humor London is to me the wonder of the world, growing and increasing on every side like the march of an army Get in an omnibus and ride through one of the principal thoroughfares and around you is a sea of people moving to and fro, with umbrellas in their hands in Midsummer and roses in their button-holes, and wearing beaver hats

NOTHING BUT BEAVER HATS

England expends every man to wear a beaver hat and a rose in his button hole. And in this sea you perceive a swarm of policemen—the most magnificent men I ever saw in my life—outside of San Francisco Hyde Park gates, white and ghastly, become black as American citizens of African descent. The dining place of Dr Johnson "Cheshire Cheese" is haunted by Americans, who have given away pieces of the dirty surface against which the Doctor's head used to rest. But the proprietor supplies the demand yearly, and each relic-hunter is accommodated with a genuine piece Holywell's nobody enters but book men Here is the famous Savage Club, with the picture of the traditional American Indian looking over at the

"SUICIDE OF CHATTERTON"

[Here the lecturer spoke of the kindness with which Artemus Ward had been nursed in his last sickness by his English friends, and his touching allusions to the great humorist were applauded] Napoleon III comes to the Savage Club, for I believe he is more successful as a writer than an Emperor, and Garibaldi has been there, too I was introduced once to a celebrated painter (Gustave Dore) in the Savage Club I could not understand a word of his language nor he of mine, there fore our greeting was more cordial than intelligible The waiter placed wine between us He said in French I said, "No Parlez" He then spoke German I said "No kumtaw" We drank again, and I spoke to him in California Digger Indian I then tried the Oregon Chinook, but he did not understand me [Laughter] In What shall I first say

THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND,

a sad and silent woman whose virtues, charities and simplicity have challenged the admiration of the world [Long applause] I thank you for that [Renewed applause.] A woman who has turned from the allurements of courts to educate her own children—a woman always clad in uncompromising black She never wears hoops nor water falls nor false hair I think she deserves a crown for this, if nothing else The rush and roar of London, more terrible than the sea, is only still for one moment in the twelve months, and that is the moment I went alone before the old year passed out to hear the chimes of bells The policeman waited with arms fold d, the thief stood still, the vast city was in silent expectation to hear the first footfalls of the New Year, and then the bells boomed up the Thames and down the Thames, and the world was in motion again I sat down in the Poet's Corner of Westminster Abbey, by

DICKENS' GRAVESTONE

A party of women laid a large garland on the slab, and then a vast line of men passed by and each laid the rose from his button hole on the tomb, until the mass of flowers concealed the inscription and Dean Stanley, the Dean of Westminster, is a small frail man, but is a fiery man—a noble gentleman Here in the Poet's Corner came Tennyson, and Hyacinths, and Dore—the most beautiful man I ever saw Up to Chelsea, on the left bank of the Thames, two figures walk side by side One wears a slouched hat and smokes a large German pipe—that is Thomas Carlyle, the other walks slow and with his eyes on the ground—that is Dante Rossetti, the poet About the latter there is a

A SAD STORY

He loved a noble lady, he was poor, but, putting his face against all the world, he won her She died and he buried all his songs in her grave There they remained for eight years before they were given to the public The Rossetti's are now rich and earnest Republicans Their house during our war was the nucleus of Northern sympathizers in London. Christina Rossetti is a pale silent lady, and writes more from inspiration than any poet I ever saw At the home of Jean Ingelow I met Maddox Brown the founder of the pre Raphaelite School, who 25 years ago carried off all the prizes from the Art Academy There was also Morris, and Swinburne talking to Mrs Morris—a tall, spiritual woman, and the

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN IN ALL EUROPE.

Not a carpet in the pre-Raphaelite home—a little wine and every one doing just as he chose Such is the school of the pre-Raphaelites Passing over to Dean French's in Eaton Square, we met Robert Browning and Tennyson there at breakfast with a Duke or two to fill up with Browning recites some simple Welsh ballad I believe there is no rivalry between these great men. When Tennyson is in the Isle of Wight it is conceded that Browning is the intellectual king of the city of London In Browning's study hangs a pen and ink sketch of Tennyson finding one of his poems Mrs. Browning and Browning sat listening, and Rossetti, who made the sketch has placed himself in the background, in the act The most genial poet in London is Lockyer—the bosom friend of Tennyson He told me once that he had just returned from some German spring, drank a great deal of water, and was happy to say that he was

NOT MUCH WORSE

Lockyer's collection of autographs is the best in the world I found there twelve letters of George Washington to Admiral Lockyer Swinburne is a poet but not the least part of a philosopher, though it seems the world expects he should be both. I have spent some time with Swinburne and never saw anything impure in his life A frail man is Swinburne with an enormous head crowned with yellow hair He is true in his love, fierce and uncompromising in his hate.

FINALE

Thanking the audience for their attention, the lecturer concluded one of the most interesting lectures that has ever been delivered before a San Francisco audience His enunciation had the fault of being indistinct at times but his delivery was pleasant and altogether out of the monotony style of the stereotyped lecturer He wished to excuse himself from the promised reading of a poem but the audience would not have it so he read the Arabian from a volume of his own poems. The result of Mr Miller's first experiment in the lecture hall was eminently satisfactory
